GLORY OF BELMONT STAKES

One of the Historical Prizes of the American Turf.

Coaching Oaks' Great Promise—Fine Field for Suburban Next Saturday.

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 31.—While there are many splendid features to engage the attention of the public during the current meeting of the Westchester Racing Association at Belmont Park, there are two which overshadow the others as tests for the American thoroughbred. These are the Belmont Stakes and the Coaching Club American Oaks for three-year-olds, the former for colts and fillies, and the latter for fillies exclusively. The distance, in both races is one mile and three-eighths, which renders them unique, as this is the longest route young thoroughbreds are asked to run during the spring in this country.

There is no race in the United States with a greater wealth of high-class stake material among its list of winners than the Belmont can boast of, and it must always be reckoned as one of the most important tests to which thoroughbreds are subjected during the early part of their three-year-old career. That the traditions of the historic event are to be preserved was indicated when the value of the stake was increased last autumn so that it will be worth in the neighborhood of $50,000 in 1922.

The Belmont has always been a race of character and, since its inception in 1867, when it was one of the features of the American Jockey Club, whose meetings were held at lovely old Jerome Park, it has been the aim of every owner in the country to win it. It was named in honor of the president of that organization, who had the pleasure of winning it in 1869 with Fenian with Charlie Miller in the saddle. The present chairman of the Jockey Club has furnished winners in Hastings, Masterman, Friar Rock and Hourless. Messrs. H. P. Whitney and James R. Keene have also owned numerous winners of this event in the fifty-four years of its existence, some of the fine horses bearing their colors to victory being Tanya, Burgomaster and Johren for the former, while Spendthrift, Commando, Colin, Delhi, Peter Pan and Sweep scored for the latter. Other great racers on the list are Hanover, Henry of Navarre, Africander, The Finn, Sir Barton and Man o' War.

There is a distinctive quality associated with this old race which will guarantee its individuality for all time to come as it is the only race of its name among our turf records. There are many so-called Derbies in the United States, most of them at a mile and a furlong. The word Derby therefore has no particular significance in this country, if the Kentucky race of that title be excepted, and even this is run over a course a furlong shorter than the Belmont Stakes. By right of historical association and its merits as a test of thoroughbred quality the Belmont is destined to hold its place among the greatest of the stake races of the American turf.

WITHERS STAKES TOMORROW.

The Withers Stakes at a mile, which corresponds to the Two Thousand Guineas in England, will be run on Thursday of this week. Most of the Belmont eligibles are in it and the race will be the best sort of preparation for the real test of three-year-old supremacy which has been set for Saturday, June 11. That our three-year-olds are beating each other with frequency this spring makes the outcome doubtful, there being no Man o' War to gallop his opponents into the ground, as the big son of Fair Play did in 1920.

The Coaching Club American Oaks should furnish a race worth going a long distance to see, if Nancy Lee and Prudery both go to the post in the same condition as when they met in the Kentucky Oaks. On that occasion Nancy won by a head. These fine young mares, which are destined to produce the champions of the future, if there is anything in the theory of scientific breeding, are so closely matched that sentiment is about evenly divided as to which is the better filly. The race will be the feature of the closing day of the meeting, Thursday, June 16.

In connection with Nancy Lee it is pleasing to record that the wisdom of her breeder, William Woodward of Belair Stud, Maryland, who retired her in the middle of the Saratoga season of 1920 in order that she would have a chance to grow into a mare capable of winning some of the big stakes of 1921, bids fair to be confirmed. Mr. Woodward is a member of the Coaching Club, which fathered the Belmont Park filly feature and offered the historic old Singleton Cup as a trophy. The day on which the race is run is the occasion of the Coaching Club's annual pilgrimage to Belmont Park, where the party is entertained at luncheon by their fellow member, Frank K. Sturgis, who is president of the Turf and Field Club. Should Nancy Lee prove victorious, Belair would have its second leg on the Singleton Cup, as Polka Dot was victorious for the Maryland organization in 1919.

The outlook for a fine contest in the Suburban Handicap, to be run next Saturday, is bright. The field will probably come from the following sterling performers—Exterminator, Mad Hatter, Cirrus, On Watch, Blazes, Paul Jones, Audacious, Eternal, Thunderclap, Upset, Dr. Clark, Broomspun, Yellow Hand, Sennings Park and Fair Gain. Track conditions may bring some changes, but the bone and sinew of the contest will be found in the list given above.

FEATURELESS CARD AT THORNCLIFFE

TORONTO, Ont., May 31.—Another featureless card was provided for the second day's racing at Thorncliffe Park today. Favorites were successful, all of which scored with ease, with the exception of Algonquin. The Fletcher representative was out to the last ounce to beat Gallant Groom a neck in the second race, for Canadian-bred horses.

Back Bay pulled up lame after winning the fifth race, while Austral came from a long way back in the stretch to annex the concluding dash.

EPSOM DERBY WILL BE RUN TODAY

RECORD SINCE 1850 OF THE FOREMOST RACE OF THE WORLD AND WHICH HAS BEEN WON BY SUCH WONDERS AS VOLTAGEUR, WEST AUSTRALIAN, BLINK BONNY, BLAIR ATHOL, GALOPIN, CREMORNE, ORMONDE, ISINGLASS AND FLYING FOX

The one hundred and forty-first renewal of the far-famed Epsom Derby is the star turf feature of this day. It is the race of races to followers of the great sport the wide world over. Its winning has been eagerly sought by king and commoners alike, by Englishmen, Irishmen, Scotchmen, Frenchmen, Italians, Americans—in short, by turfmen of all nationalities carrying on racing. Its position as the foremost race of the world in historical dignity is unassailable and uncontested. The race of this year is vested with all the interest that attached to its predecessors. Its winter favorites, Humorist, Monarch and the like, have given place to the logic of the revelations of spring racing, and now the winner of the Two Thousand Guineas, Craig an Eran, property of an expatriated American, is the favorite and a downright good colt of Derby calibre he is. At last advices Leighton, undefeated son of Roi Herode—Queen of the Earth, and especially reserved for this Derby, was a highly thought of second choice, with Alan Breck and dependable Lemonora next in favor. However, to none of these may fall the laurels of victory. The field is expected to be a large one numerically. A few hours hence we will know the outcome of the anxiously awaited event. To Americans nothing would be more delightful than a triumph for Mr. Macomber's The Bohemian, an American-bred, which had his first racing lessons in this country last year. But success for him would come strictly in the category of things only faintly hoped for.

The Derby was first run in 1780. Its first winner, Diomed, came to this country in his old age and founded a great family. The condensed history of the race since 1850 is as follows:

LATONIA IMPROVEMENTS COMPLETED

CINCINNATI, O., May 31.—Louisville's advance contingent arriving at Latonia today was a large one, some coming on the regular trains, but the majority arriving on the railroad special. Arrivals of horses were also numerous and included the stables of C. W. Clark, John Lowe, E. Cebrian, M. Lowenstein and Lloyd Gentry. These came by express and a twenty-car special with horses left Louisville at noon, which will reach the chute at Latonia late in the afternoon.

Track superintendent Larry Borgenschot has applications for 1,168 stalls and he expects when the thirty-one days' meeting beginning next Saturday is under way, that there will be 1,000 horses on the grounds ready to go to the post in the dashes that their owners may elect to start them in.

The improvements that have been made since the close last autumn will afford 25,000 visitors a chance to view the races in comfort and with a little crowding 15,000 additional spectators can be taken care of. The chief improvements on the plant were made to the grandstand, clubhouse and lawn. A promenade with four terraces will enable thousands to get a good view of the racing, something they could not do formerly on account of the flat, low level of the lawn.

The stairways in front of the stand also have been removed and the stairs leading to the upper part of the structure placed on the inside. There is an abundance of these stairs, removing possibility of congestion. The many other improvements have transformed the Latonia plant into a state unknown to former visitors.

Only minor details remain to complete the improvements and everything will be in thorough order for the opening next Saturday.

POSTPONE RENO MEETING TO JUNE 3

RENO, Nev., May 31.—Racing had to be postponed here until Friday, June 3, the heavy rains that fell for the past eighteen hours placing the grounds in an unfit condition for the comfort of the public.

ANOTHER HILDRETH DOUBLE

Veteran and Patched Up Stromboli Attests to Wizard's Skill.

Grey Lag Qualifies Handsomely for Coming Withers and Belmont Stakes.

NEW YORK, N. Y., May 31.—Ex-champion Stromboli, patched up into racing activity by wizard Sam Hildreth, won a surprising race on Belmont Park's fast track this afternoon and was cheered to the echo by the moderate crowd which saw the feat. The old fellow was in the third race, a condition mile for non-winners of large amounts last year and though he had worked a good mile Monday and galloped as soundly as possible he was neglected in the fiscal side of things, his odds drifting from 8 to 5 to 4 to 1.

The lawn men drummed for Stromboli backers and got but few. The fancy was for Bridesman and Fair Gain. This pair and Carpet Sweeper were the only opponents of Stromboli. The race was a beauty, and a tribute to class. Stromboli and Bridesman were away in front together and raced the quarter in :23⅘, and still together to the half in 47 seconds. The pace was sizzling for such horses. The middle two furlongs told its tale and class shone, for around the bend Bridesman had had nearly enough and Stromboli, under Sande's rule, drew away from him. Another eighth settled Bridesman and it was left to Fair Gain to chase Stromboli into a mild hand riding drive to win comfortably the mile in 1:37⅘. Bridesman was a tired third. Stromboli finished as fresh as a morning daisy and came back with pricked and listening ears for the almost forgotten plaudits which used to be there in surges. The old horse's legs were all in bandages, but he strode soundly before and after the race. No one was more pleased than Hildreth. The old gelding is a great friend of his and destined for comfort, ease and care when he can race no more.

Stromboli has had a notable career. He is likely to win a few more races this year. So far he has won $44,284 during his seven years of action on the turf. He is ten years old and hasn't raced for two years. But in the seven, aside from the money he has earned, Stromboli has started in all sorts of seventy-two races of high degree, cups, handicaps and condition races, and won twenty-seven times, been second in twenty-three races, third in ten and unplaced but twelve times. His career has been remarkable. No wonder those of the crowd which love a horse of courage and great deeds cheered Stromboli as he went to his quarters.

Mr. Hildreth scored a double victory again, for his Grey Lag, favorite for the Freeport Handicap, for three-year-olds, second of the afternon races, won it easily. After laying away for three-quarters of a mile he ran around Muskallonge, Dry Moon and Messines, the best of his opponents, and won in a handy and impressive way.

GREY LAG BRED TO STAY.

It is evident that Sam Hildreth knew what he was talking about when he said that Grey Lag's going lame on the eve of the Kentucky Derby was costly to the Rancocas Stable. There was never a time in the race when he couldn't have run away from his opponents and he won with a lot in reserve. Grey Lag is bred to stay all day on his dam's side, as he is from Miss Minnie, by Medley, while his scond dam, Spectrum, is by Orvieto and the next dam, False Sight, is by Melton.

The race put the finishing touches on Grey Lag for the Withers Stakes, which is the feature of Thursday's card and it will take a mighty good three-year-old to beat him in it. Ht is also in the Belmont Stakes, which will be run Saturday, June 11, for which Tryster and other good ones are not entered and the prospect of the chestnut son of Star Shoot scoring doubly is good. Grey Lag has grown into a fine rangy type of thoroughbred and if his ailing foot does not bother him he will be among the good winners of the year.

The Marshall Bros.' string, headed by Courtship and Marie Miller, also arrived from Kentucky. George Marshall has been here since the opening of the season. Louis is on his way.

Starter Cassidy's schooling list is remarkably small for this season of the year, only three bad actors appearing thereon. Miriam Cooper, Armistice and Favour are the trio. This does not mean that New York horses are better mannered than thoroughbreds elsewhere, but Mr. Cassidy is willing to take more chances on getting bad actors away from the post than are other barrier officials.

Election, which broke down in his race of Monday, will be retired from racing. He stripped the ligaments in his right foreleg. Election is a five-year-old horse by Ballot—Sadie S.

F. Keogh arrived at Belmont Park from Benning, where he went on his way from Toronto. He reported that all of the two-year-olds in the S. Ross stable are coughing and the ailment is prevalent among others at the Washington track.

CHURCHILL DOWNS' FINE MEETING

OVER $300,000 DISTRIBUTED IN STAKES AND PURSES DURING TWENTY DAYS OF RACING---E. R. BRADLEY'S DERBY VICTORY BRINGS HIM ALL THE HONORS

The Churchill Downs spring meeting of 1921 embraced twenty days of racing, beginning May 7 and ending May 30. There were 140 races run and the imposing total of $302,090 distributed in stakes and purses, the daily average distribution amounting to $15,104. The historical Kentucky Derby was, as it always has been, the outstanding attraction of the meeting. That it was won by a Kentucky breeder and owner enhanced its value more so than ever, even the fact that its monetary value was the greatest in its history. Great horses have raced in Kentucky before, but never in the past were there so many available for the entire racing period as was the case with the meeting just ended. This was reflected in the many interesting and spirited races that delighted the immense crowds that were in daily attendance. While financially the meeting, because of money stringency, failed to come up to the high mark of last year, in every other respect it was a pronounced success.

Fortune not only smiled kindly on E. R. Bradley, she was lavish with her gifts. To win the Kentucky Derby is an honor coveted by all turfmen, rich and poor alike, but to have horses of one's own breeding and ownership finish first and second in it is indeed filling the cup to the brim. This was the good fortune of Mr. Bradley, as everyone knows. But Dame Fortune did not stop here, for the end of the meeting finds the Bradley Stable with greater winnings to its credit than ever before to its record in any entire year of racing with the exception of 1920. The Bradley horses won $60,327, placing the name of the master of Idle Hour Stud at the head of the list of the money-winning owners, of which the following won $500 or more each:

LATONIA OPENS SATURDAY

Weights Announced for Inaugural Handicap, Chief Race of Splendid Racing Program.

COVINGTON, Ky., May 31.—Preparations are completed for the reception of horses from Churchill Downs, where the spring meeting at that point ended yesterday. The horse colony at Latonia has been growing daily and after the special trains reach here from Louisville there will not be a vacant stall.

Among the arrivals last week was the string of Mose Goldblatt, including those he is training for H. P. Whitney. Goldblatt says that James Rowe plans to return to Latonia with more of the Whitney horses, wiring to have nine stalls bedded down for him. It is expected that Broomspun will be sent here to run in the Latonia Derby.

Another arrival last week was the stable of R. J. Walden of Maryland, with sixteen horses.

Everything is spick and span for the coming meeting, which opens next Saturday. For the opening day the Inaugural Handicap and the Clipsetta Stakes will be the stellar racing attractions. Weights for the first mentioned have been announced and are as follows:

Wins Principal Race at Dorval—Run in a Blinding Rainstorm.

MONTREAL, Que., May 31.—Registrar, carrying the colors of J. K. L. Ross, accounted for what was offered as the carded feature at the Dorval track today when he led home a small band of three-year-olds at a mile. The race was run in a blinding rainstorm, which made it almost impossible to distinguish the colors at any stage of the contest. Twopair was the one to set the early pace, followed by the winner, with the remainder of the field in striking distance. Straightened out for home, Gruneisen saved ground with Registrar, while Pimlico again bore out to the outer rail. In the final drive Pimlico could not get to the winner, while Twopair easily held safe the small portion of the purse.

Oppressive heat, which had all the indications of a thunderstorm, prevailed for the running of the first two races and a sharp shower drove the crowd to the shelter points of the stands and pavilion. The rain developing in intensity, track conditions were soon changed into a veritable quagmire and were responsible for many withdrawals.

Thurber, who had ridden three winners yesterday, made it four when he won the opening dash with All Fair, which easily took the measure of J. H. Louchheim's Devonite, the favorite.

The running of the second dash furnished a surprise for the crowd when Allies Way defeated Shoreacres, the first choice in a race for Canadian-breds at three-quarters of a mile. The winner was neglected by the talent and paid $27.85 for $2. He won in the last stride of a driving finish that evoked much excitement.

Rameau came out of his race yesterday with minor cuts.

Col. J. De Estrampes has written to J. Hope that he will leave Havana for a sojourn in Canada toward the beginning of the Hamilton meeting.

Jockey Mangin was an arrival yesterday and will resume riding as soon as he is granted a license.

Ex-jockey J. Truble will apply for a trainer's license at next meeting of the Canadian Racing Associations.

J. White has announced that he has mated the Canadian-bred Java to Marathon. M. William's Morning Song, which has a chestnut suckling colt by Sky Pilot, has been bred back to Night Wind.

J. S. Whatley has secured first call on the services of jockey H. Garner for the Canadian season.

Woodthrush was claimed, following the running of the seventh race yesterday, by C. H. Vail from C. C. Lennox. The Giddings-Brenner stables were unloaded at Blue Bonnets this morning.

W. G. Gibson also arrived with a stable of jumpers and took up quarters at the same track.

The schooling list has been increased by the addition of Carmandale, Antilles and Lad's Love.

W. P. Krausmann of Toronto arrived today. He states that the Canadian-bred Hampton Dame has been bred to Calgary.

RACING MATERIAL FOR OMAHA MEETING

OMAHA, Neb., May 31.—The interest in the coming meeting at Ak-Sar-Ben Field is increasing daily, and the five cottage barns, comprising 140 stalls, have been completed. Together with the old barns, this gives housing capacity for over 300 horses, and at the rate at which they are arriving there will probably be that many on the grounds opening day.

The entries to the two stakes scheduled have been good and there will probably be twelve starters in each, comprising such horses as Rifle of the C. B. Irwin string. Irwin has about twenty-five horses quartered at Ak-Sar-Ben Field; Lady in Black and Phrone Ward, owned by Nels B. Updike, owner of the Omaha Bee. Mr. Updike is gathering together a small but select string of racers. An express car containing fifteen horses arrived from Louisville, and among them are Brig of War, Byrne and Benefactor.

The stand at Omaha is one of the best appointed grandstands in the country, constructed of steel and with a seating capacity of 10,000 people.

Judge Martin Nathanson of Chicago will preside at the meeting.

CORRECTION IN THORNCLIFFE CHART

In race No. 54561 the $2 mutuel show price on A. L. Kirby entry should read $6.75, instead of $6.25, as printed.

ROSS STABLE'S WINNINGS

Eight Seasons of Racing Has Yielded the Canadian Turfman $646,163.

The entrance of J. K. L. Ross into American racing in 1914 was in a modest way and attended with meager results. Nor did his racing operations in 1915 attract any great attention. But after that his ascension in the racing firmament was steady until in 1918 and 1919 he was at the zenith as the leading American winning owner for two successive years. He had the right idea about the way to acquire a winning stable and did not allow money to stand in the way when the possibility of buying a real race horse was in sight. To this wise policy was due the racing of such superb specimens as Cudgel, Sir Barton and Billy Kelly in his colors, to say nothing of such as Boniface, Milkmaid and others of high class.

One of the strangest features of his meteoric career as an owner was that in 1920, when his horses amassed by far the greatest total in stable earnings and were the highest ever placed to his credit, he still had to play second fiddle to the wonderful H. P. Whitney Stable of that year.

So far the Ross record has been in the main that of an owner, but it is quite probable that ere many years pass he will acquire fame as a successful breeder also. He has a superior collection of brood mares in his possession, and with such a wonderful son of Broomstick as Cudgel, and Star Shoot's best son, Sir Barton, as well as such an already highly successful sire as Marathon, is splendidly equipped to do great things in racing presently with horses of his own breeding.

The record of the Ross Stable, including all races up to and including those of Friday, May 28, is shown below:

NEWMARKET STAKES RACE

Lemonora, Half Brother to Herodius, Wins English Stake.

Aliados Gives Epsom Derby Promise in Race Won Last Year by Spion Kop.

(BY E. E. COUSSELL.)

LONDON, England, May 14.—As Alan Breck did not start for the Newmarket Stakes, the thick-winded Lemonora had little difficulty in winning. It is a one and one-quarter mile stake, worth $14,900 to the winner. There were seven starters and the bookmakers were liberal in taking odds of 15 to 8 on Lemonora winning. In the paddock Lemonora was greatly admired. He looked better than on the Two Thousand Guineas day; in fact, he was easily the pick of the runners. He is a fine looking colt, full of quality and muscular power, a chestnut with gray hairs ticked through his coat and black spots on the quarters. He has a big star and white marks on both fore and off hind pasterns. He turns in slightly near his fore foot. Eaglehawk stripped clean and fit. Lord Derby's colt, Glorioso, which is by Swynford—Assurance, sister to Cocksure II., and half sister to Steadfast, is a big, leggy and rather split-up black colt. He was considered by his connections to have a good outside chance in the Derby. The reports as to his merit were reflected in the market and he started next in request to Lemonora. His performance clearly undeceived his owner and Glorioso is evidently not so good as was thought.

It did not appear to be a fast run race; the time, however, was good, for a wind blew down the course and the track was hard. Lemonora is rather a slow beginner, but the field was closely bunched for about a mile, when Childs shook up Lemonora, which began to draw away from the others. Eaglehawk went after him, but he was the only one to make any real effort. Lemonora went away from the foot of the hill to win easily by three lengths. The time was 2:08⅘. This performance cannot make one regard his Derby prospect any more highly. Really he appeared to have little to beat, for Eaglehawk ran a spasmodic race. The last named has improved much since a two-year-old and looked well. I regard him as likely to make a good stayer later in the year if he does not become tired of racing. One has always a bit of suspicion about any relatives of The Panther. Eaglehawk, however, has a lot of Spearmint character about him and is probably one of the slow developing Musket tribe.

It is a pity that Alan Breck, Polemarch and Humorist declined to contest for the Newmarket Stakes. However, there is still plenty of interest in the Derby, notwithstanding that Leighton has not had a race this year.

Lemonora is in the same stable as the Two Thousand Guineas winner, Craig-an-Eran, whose prospect can be considered through the Newmarket Stakes winner.

Lemonora is the sixth living foal of Honora, by Gallinule. He is two years older than Mr. W. R. Coe's imported filly Herodius, daughter of The Tetrarch, which in England, would now possess great value as a brood mare. Mr. Coe is at present in this country and hopes to inspect a number of the leading stud farms and stallions before returning to the United States.

Monarch, of course, was entered in the Newmarket Stakes, but was not a runner. It is reported that he is extremely unlikely to run in the Derby. It is quite on the cards he will be specially prepared for the good sprint races at Ascot. It is clear he is a non-stayer.

A race well worth mentioning in connection with the Derby is the Spelthorne Three-Year-Old Stakes, run over one and one-half miles at Kempton Park on the same day as the Jubilee Handicap. This was the race which Spion Kop won last year. On the present occasion several colts with Derby liabilities contested in the race. The favorites were Brinklow, by Radium—Summer Girl, dam of Over There, and Sirrah, a half-brother by Swynford to Fifinella. They both ran well for one and one-quarter miles where they were beaten, being passed by Cylette and Aliados. The latter stayed on to win by nearly a length. He is a good-looking bay colt bred by his owner, Sir William Nelson. He is by Royal Realm, son of Persimmon—Eddystone, the dam of Attilius. She is by Eager, from a daughter of Gallinule. Aliados did not run as a two-year-old and this is his first start this year. It would therefore be well to reserve judgment about him until later, though it may be mentioned that last year Attilius was regarded as possessing a good outside chance of winning the Derby. Although he ran in the race he was then slightly amiss or would doubtless have considerably improved his position—ninth—behind Spion Kop.
